DATA PROTECTION POLICY

1.1 General Data Protection Regulation

Linlithgow Amateur Musical Productions incorporating LAMP Children's Theatre (hereafter referred to as the Society) is committed to protecting personal information and recognises our commitment under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679 under EU law. This Data Protection Policy relates to the societies use of any personal information collected about Members and Supporters of the society, Children in our Productions and their Parents/Guardians, the Trustees of our society, Patrons on our Mailing list and Suppliers to the society.

The following sections detail how our policy will impact each of the above noted groups of individuals;

2.1 Privacy Policy for Members and Supporters of the society

The Society is committed to protecting personal information. This Privacy Policy relates to our use of any personal information we collect from you when you become a Member or Supporter of the Society. Members pay a membership fee and Supporters are individuals who are involved in supporting the activities of the Society. This involvement includes (but is not limited to) scenery construction, costumes, properties, publicity, front of house arrangements, stage management, sound, lighting, direction, choreography, music and orchestra. Supporters also include lapsed members, as such members normally wish to remain in contact with the society and may wish to renew their membership at a future date.

2.1.1 The personal information we collect from you

We collect basic personal details such as your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, subscriptions and dates paid. For Members, we may also take your photograph and ask you for your biography.

2.1.2 How we use information

We will use your information to send you newsletters, letters or emails to give you details of General Meetings, Shows, Rehearsals, Production Meetings and similar events that are likely to be of interest to you. Your name, and possibly photograph and biography, may appear in our show Programmes, website & social media updates and newsletters. Your information may also be shared with our committee members (who are our Society's Trustees). This use is in our 'Legitimate Interest'. You will be aware that our show programmes are public documents and that our newsletters are shared amongst our membership and with our supporters. We will not share your information with other third parties without your consent.

2.1.3 Security

We put in place reasonable security measures to protect against any unauthorised access or damage to, or disclosure or loss of, your information.

2.1.4 Your rights

Please let us know if your information changes as it is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. We will keep your information indefinitely after you remain an active member or supporter of the Society. We keep your information because you may resume your connection with the Society and take part again in our activities. However, you can ask us to remove your personal information from our records at any time and we will do so and stop sending you any further newsletters. You have the right to request a copy of all the personal information we hold about you in a Subject Access Request. To do this, simply write to us at the address below. We will take all reasonable steps to confirm your identity before providing you with details of any personal information we may hold about you.

2.2 Privacy Policy for Children in our Productions and their Parents/Guardians

The Society is committed to protecting personal information. This Privacy Policy relates to our use of any personal information we collect about children who audition for or are cast in one of our productions and their parents/guardians. We collect this information from you and/or from your parents or guardians.

2.2.1 The information we collect

Prior to the auditions, we will collect basic personal details such as your name, address, date of birth, height, parents' names, address, e-mail address and telephone number, subscription amounts and dates paid. We may also take your photograph and ask for your biography. Prior to the auditions we will ask you and/or your parents/ guardians to consent to the collection of this personal information and the uses to which it will be put. We are able to accept consent directly from children over 13. For parents/guardians, we may ask for certain information about you to assist with our Volunteer Scotland checks. Any information gathered as part of these checks will be disposed of as soon as the check is verified.

2.2.2 How we use information

We will use your personal information and your parents'/ guardians' personal information: for planning any aspect of the production; to send you details of our Rehearsals and communicate with you about any aspect of the production; to support your health and well-being whilst you are taking part in rehearsals and performances; to comply with any legal requirements regarding your participation in the production and to compile entries in our show Programme, our website & social media updates and our newsletters.

2.2.3 Security

We put in place reasonable security measures to protect against any unauthorised access or damage to, or disclosure or loss of, your personal information or your parents'/guardians' personal information.

2.2.4 Your rights

Please let us know if your personal information or that of your parents/guardians changes as it is important that the information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. Circulating information to you and your parents/ guardians is a necessary part of being a member of the company but when the production is over, we will remove your personal information and that of your parents/guardians from our files. You and your parents/ guardians have the right to request a copy of all the personal information we hold about you and them in a Subject Access Request. To do this, simply write to us at the address below. We will take all reasonable steps to confirm your identity before providing you with details of any personal information we may hold about you.

2.3 Privacy Policy for Trustees of the Society

The Society is committed to protecting personal information. This Privacy Policy relates to our use of any personal information we collect from you when you become a Trustee of the Society. Trustees are elected at General Meeting or a limited additional number may be co-opted by the other Trustees

2.3.1 The personal information we collect from you (in addition to the information collected as a Member).

We hold the date of birth and home address of Trustees as this a requirement when lodging our annual report with the Charity Commission.

2.3.2 How we use information

Your name will appear in our Report and Accounts which are filed with the Charity Commission and Companies House. We will use your information to inform you of Committee Meetings and your name will appear in the minutes of these Meetings and in the minutes of General Meetings.

2.3.3 Security

We put in place reasonable security measures to protect against any unauthorised access or damage to, or disclosure or loss of, your information.

2.3.4 Your rights

Please let us know if your information changes as it is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. We will keep your information as a Trustee until you cease to become a Trustee but you will be aware that your name will appear on our Report and Accounts which is a public document. You have the right to request a copy of all the personal information we hold about you in a Subject Access Request. To do this, simply write to us at the address below. We will take all reasonable steps to confirm your identity before providing you with details of any personal information we may hold about you.

2.4 Privacy Policy for Patrons on our Mailing List
